

IBS Team Joins National Association of Certified Valuers

CORPORATE & REAL ESTATE FINANCE SINCE 2011

IBS Investment Bank offers institutional investors a distinctive array of qualified investment opportunities through its origination arm IBS Institutional Capital

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL, APR. 2021— Fort Lauderdale-based private equity firm IBS Institutional Capital (IBS), an IBS Investment Bank (IBS, N.A.) sister company, today announced that its senior team joined the leading full-services financial certification association National Association of Certified Valuers (NACVA).

Founded in 1991, NACVA is widely considered the leading authority in corporate valuations. NACVA has trained over 40,000 CPAs and other valuation and consulting professionals in business valuation, financial forensics, financial litigation, and various related specialty services serving the legal and business communities. NACVA's Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA) credential is the only business valuation credential accredited by the National Commission for Certifying Agencies® (NCCA®) and the American National Standards Institute® (ANSI®). Accordingly, the association is revered among the nation's leading financial and accounting professionals. Senior executives at IBS began implementing NACVA's training into their corporate learning and development program.

About IBS

IBS Institutional Capital (IBS), an IBS Investment Bank sister company, is a privately held, national balance sheet lender specializing in placing direct investments into small to middle-market sized businesses and real estate companies. For more information about IBS and its sister companies, visit the links below.

About NACVA

National Association of Certified Valuers (NACVA): NACVA is one of the nation's leading financial competency certifying organizations, having trained over 40,000 professionals in the fields of business valuation, financial forensics, financial litigation, and various related specialty services.